PASADENA DISTRICT EPWORTH LEAGUE MEETING WAS GREAT SUCCESS

The Saturday morning program of the Epworth League convention in session in this city was in every way satisfactory. The subjects for discussion including "Christian Stewardship" by Miss Elizabeth Merritt of Long Beach; "A Question—What Is the Answer?" covering the fast multiplying Intermediate League work of the district was handled by that very efficient Intermediate worker, Mrs. F. G. S. Morrison of Grace M. E. church, Redlands; "Girls in a Far-off Land," concerning the Borneo school for girls which the District has been supporting for a number of years, by Rev. Charles Scott of Ontario; and the Spanish and Portuguese work of Southern California by Rev. Vernon M. McCoombs of South Pasadena.

The financial goal for the last-named missionary enterprises, $100 per month for Spanish and Portuguese work and $50 per month for the Borneo school make a total of $1800. Of this amount $1332 was quickly raised with 18 chapters out of the 43 unable to report just what their subscriptions would be. Besides this amount $189 was reported as subscribed on independent missionary enterprises.

Very satisfactory reports of the year's work were given in the annual report of the District officers, who were all present. Reports of several committees appointed were heard and adopted.

After a well-prepared and delicious lunch the sessions of the convention convened again at 1:15 with a devotional topic, "The Final Drive," by H. J. Buckner of Azusa; "Digging In" by Dr. Byron H. Wilson, superintendent of the Los Angeles District; "Cutting Barb-Wire Entanglements," covering the fourth or social department of the League work, by Oliver M. Butterfield, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of South Pasadena; special chorus music by twenty-four Junior League members from Lake avenue M. E. Church of Pasadena under the direction of Miss Martha Biedebach, and then a stirring address on Junior League work by Mrs. Daniel Dundas of Florence. Little Miss Margaret Mabel Moore, wee daughter of the District Superintendent, sang "Keep the Home Fires

LEO MEINCKE IN NAVY

Leo Meincke, who has lived in Glendale with his father, Julius Meincke, for the past three years, enlisted with the Naval Reserves November 21th, 1917, and was called to report for duty at San Pedro February 24th, 1918. After four days at San Pedro Mr. Meincke was transferred to Wissahickon Barracks, Cape May, New Jersey, where he put in some hard training for about two months in a class of more experienced sailors. He was then assigned to the U. S. S. Chattanooga, which is doing active duty on the Atlantic Coast. He likes the ship he is on very much and advises any young men contemplating entering the service to join the Navy as he says Uncle Sam certainly treats the Navy boys fine.

ENTERTAINMENT

IN HONOR OF HUSBANDS ANNOUNCED BY TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

Instead of the usual afternoon session, the Tuesday Afternoon Club will convene tomorrow evening at the Masonic Temple at eight p. m. The husbands of club members will be guests of honor on this occasion. The program committee, of which Mrs. C. E. Harlan is chairman, has secured B. R. Baumgardt, an internationally famous lecturer, as the principal speaker of the evning. It has been said of Mr. Baumgardt that he is "a man who knows every side of his chosen subject and that he has the peculiar gift of being able to entertain and inform at one and the same time." His subject for tomorrow evening is "The Historic Background of the Great War Brought Down to Date."

Mrs. A. B. Rosencranz of Chicago will open the program with two vocal numbers, "The Marseillaise" and "Uncle Sam Has His Arms Around the World," and lead the audience in singing one verse of "The Star-Spangled Banner" at the close. Miss Emily Squire will also give a short talk on the work of the Red Star. Miss Squire hopes to go to France very shortly in the interest of this organization and as she is a Glendale girl the community should take a special pride and interest in the fact.

S. O. S. THE SLOGAN

IT MEANS "SMOKE OUT THE SLACKERS." PLANS ARE BEING MADE TO DO IT

In connection with the Red Cross War Fund Drive, which will begin Monday, May 20th, and end Monday, May 27th, a special, personal plea has been prepared in the form of a letter which will be sent by the Committee to all persons by name whose cards on file at headquarters do not show that they have heretofore participated by contributions or otherwise to the support of the Red Cross, or other patriotic measures.

The letter has had the unanimous approval of the Executive Committee of the local Chapter, and, with the approval of the Executive Officers of the Pacific Division of the Red Cross, a similar letter will be used in practically all committees.

The object of the letter, in plain words, is to smoke out the slackers. The international wireless distress signal or code, "S. O. S.," has been adopted as the national slogan in the forthcoming War Fund Drive, and it has been made to mean, in this instance, "Smoke out the Slackers!" The letter, in plain, unmistakable language, points out that the card record of the individual addressed does not show that he has participated in any patriotic contributions or activities, and invites him to now set himself right by making contribution of a specified sum to the Red Cross War Fund, if he is not to be placed for the future in the disloyal, unpatriotic class. In the present war emergency, when the government expects every person to do his duty, what might under ordinary conditions be considered a private matter becomes a matter of public concern.

Every community now has a right to know who is loyal and who is disloyal, who is patriotic and who is unpatriotic; who of the able class buys Liberty Bonds and who of that class does not buy Liberty Bonds; who supports the Red Cross and who does not support it; and it should be stated here that all of the patriotic organizations working for the winning of the war take the position that there is hardly an individual to be found in any community who is too poor to give something—even the "widow's mite"—to Red Cross.

No person who is made to feel the weight of pitiless publicity in this matter need complain if after receiving the letter in question he fails to respond substantially and cheerfully.

A. L. LAWSHE,
Campaign Manager.

FINE SANITARY CONDITIONS

As many Glendale soldier boys have been sent to Camp Lewis, Chairman Lanterman of the Exemption Board believes many citizens will be interested in statistics concerning health conditions at the camp which he has just received in a communication dated May 8, 1918, which reads as follows:

In order to demonstrate the healthful condition of Camp Lewis and as a matter of pride in the efficiency of the medical officers in charge, the following report is published for the information of all concerned:

She is doing as well as could be expected, but will be at the hospital for some little time and as yet is able to see only the members of her family. She has asked this paper to express to the many friends who have made inquiries and expressed sympathy, her appreciation of their thoughtfulness and regard. When she is well enough to see visitors it will be announced.

A WAR WEDDING

ENSIGN FRANK R. MOSHER OF THIS CITY MARRIES ISABEL B. SHERER IN WASHINGTON

Another Glendale bachelor became a benedict when Ensign Frank Reid Mosher was united in marriage to Isabelle Brown Scherer. It happened May 1st, but as the ceremony which transformed him took place in Washington, D. C., particulars were not to be had until they filtered back to his friends through the medium of newspaper reports; for the happy man and his bride were too much occupied with their own affairs to be greatly concerned about publicity. The bride is the daughter of President and Mrs. James A. B. Scherer of Pasadena, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Sarah J. Mosher of 319 South Central avenue, this city. It was impossible for him to leave his duties long enough to come to California, and inasmuch as Dr. Scherer is in Washington on government service, it was considered wise to have the wedding take place there, at the Church of the Covenant. Rev. John T. Huddle, D.D., an old friend of Dr. Scherer, officiated and about sixty guests were present, some of them California friends of the contracting parties. Miss Margaret Hale was bridesmaid and carried a bouquet of California roses. The bride wore the conventional veil, a bit of priceless old lace, an heirloom in her family, caught up with California orange blossoms. The groom was in uniform and so was his best man, Ensign S. C. Kennedy. It was a military wedding and the ushers, who were all officers of the Flying Corps, were in uniform, the military note being emphasized by the playing of the "Star-Spangled Banner" as a prelude to the wedding march. The double ring ceremony was used and the bride's father gave her away. At the home of Arthur H. Fleming on Connecticut avenue there was a reception and supper at which a war wedding cake compounded of potato flour, rice flour, corn flour, and a fraction of wheat flour, was conspicuous.

Ensign Mosher was one of the three boys who first went from Throop, joining in March, 1917, before the United States entered the war. He received rapid promotion and is now squadron commander and instructor of instructors at Pensacola. The young people are spending their honeymoon in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia.

PATRIOTIC CHILDREN

Children are having the greatest opportunity they have ever enjoyed to show what they can do. Never was initiative among them so much encouraged. An example of what they can do all by themselves was furnished by the entertainment which was given by the little pupils of the Third Grade of the Columbus avenue school Thursday afternoon, which was planned, rehearsed and carried out with little or no help from their teacher, Miss Yarnell, or any other "grown-up." It included songs, a salute to the flag, the playing of the national anthem by one of the little boys on his violin as a solo number, and a little play called "The Twelve Months." It was a Red Cross benefit and the admission was only one penny. The children realized $2.41 and every one who attended was astonished and delighted with their work.

TO REPEAT CRANFORD MUSICAL

This afternoon Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, business manager of the Cranford Musical, her lieutenants and an expert accountant will gather to check up the accounts of tickets sold and the money taken in at the door on the night of the entertainment, which was placed in a bank vault. That there will be a goodly sum when the comparatively small expenses are paid, is quite certain. Many who wished to attend were turned away and these with others who have been enthused by the glowing reports of patrons have combined to make about one hundred requests for a repetition of the performance. It is reasonably certain that it will be given again, but when has not been announced. Mrs. Greenwalt hopes to have a full financial report for publication in the Tuesday paper.

PARLIAMENTARY USAGE SECTION

There will be no meeting of the Parliamentary Usage Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club on tomorrow, Tuesday, on account of Tuesday evening being husbands' evening.

MRS. B. L. CLINE.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Tuesday except foggy along the coast. Light westerly winds.

CHAPEL DEDICATION

LITTLE CHURCH OF THE FLOWERS SET APART FOR SACRED PURPOSE

The invitation to attend the dedication of the Little Church of the Flowers at Forest Lawn Memorial Park Sunday afternoon was largely accepted. Automobiles brought reverent, interested visitors from far and near to this beautiful city of the dead, where, the sting of death removed, peace and serenity reign in a lovely environment of grass, trees and flowers. The cemetery tract is a beautiful piece of ground rightly named "park," and its undulating surface reaching up into the hills has been improved in a manner calculated to bring out the natural beauty of the landscape.

The buildings have been carefully placed and fit into their environment in a manner which emphasizes the woodland beauty of their setting and the note of peace which makes the atmosphere of the park.

The interior of the lovely little chapel is in keeping with its outward semblance, and is very satisfying in all respects.

The service was appropriate and beautiful. Music very properly had a large part in it. There was a beautiful vocal number by Miss Helen Newcomb and several selections by the Remick Male Quartet.

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher of Los Angeles made an eloquent address in which he dwelt on the symbolism of the chapel and the ideals it represents of Faith, Hope and Love.

The president of the Forest Lawn Association, Hubert L. Eaton, followed with an address in which he reviewed what had already been accomplished in the improvement of the park and stated it was the intention of the corporation to make it the most beautiful memorial garden in all California. He also spoke of the mausoleum, which is to be one of the largest in the United States and the finest in every respect.

Rev. W. E. Edmonds of this city made the invocation, which was fervent and uplifting.

It was a beautiful service and calculated to comfort those who mourn and those whose loved ones are sleeping beneath the turf of this beautiful park.

GLENDALE GARDEN SOCIETY

At the usual monthly meeting of the Glendale Garden Society held last Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. H. C. Ackley, 210 South Kenwood, a report from the plant and flower department created to assist the Red Cross was read by the chairman. Within seven weeks the amount of $75.23 had been raised and handed over to the Red Cross fund. For a couple of weeks this sale has been discontinued, pending the finding of a new location. Great difficulty is being experienced in the search for a whole or half a shop, but the committee is not discouraged.

A report from the special committee appointed to negotiate the purchase of a Liberty Bond showed a $50 bond bought in the name of the Glendale Garden Society.

The annual meeting of the Society will be held on the first Thursday in June, when officers will be elected for the coming year. All interested members are urged to be present. The meeting will be held at 210 South Kenwood, 7:30 p. m., June 6.

LEAVES FOR THE NORTH

MRS. BEN NICHOLS WILL SPEND THE SUMMER AT AMERICAN LAKE

Mrs. Ben Nichols, who has rendered valiant service as president of the High School P.-T. A. and as Chairman of Conservation War Relief Work, will leave Tuesday evening for the North. She will make her first stop in Oakland. From there she will go to Corvallis, Wash., to visit her son Benjamin, who is in the agricultural college there, and who expects to leave the first of June to go to San Francisco for a month's work in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. Upon completing that he will report at the shipyards at Portland, where he will be employed this summer. Mrs. Nichol's third visit will be made with her husband and son at Camp Lewis. Her husband is now in the government employ there and will be busy at the ship yards at Tacoma this summer. Lieutenant Frederick Nichols is in Camp Lewis, but hopes to be sent to the front in the near future. Mrs. Nichols has spent some of the pleasantest years of her life in the north and has many friends in Washington state. She will be greatly missed in this community.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY, MAY 13, 1918

SECOND RED CROSS WAR FUND CAMPAIGN

LOS ANGELES, May 13, 1918.—Plans have been made by the American Red Cross for the biggest nation-wide series of parades ever held in one day. Fifteen hundred cities and towns are included in the plans, which contemplate the participation of more than five million men and women. These parades will be held Saturday, May 18, two days preceding the Second Red Cross Campaign to raise one hundred million dollars for war relief.

Red Cross nurses will have the place of honor in the parades. This section will be led by members of state and local committees, preceded by banners giving the total number of Red Cross nurses from the particular city or county on active duty with the army or navy, or directly under the Red Cross. A Red Cross nurse bearing a Red Cross service flag with blue stars representing the number on active duty will also precede the uniformed nurses.

A number of different uniforms, showing the scope of Red Cross nursing service, will be in line. The nurses in the military hospitals of this country will wear the regulation white uniform with blue cape and Red Cross cap. Those on European service will wear their street uniform—blue serge suit with ulster, dark blue hat and tan shoes. There will also be a service uniform of grey crepe, white collars and cuffs, and Red Cross cap; the rainy day uniform of long rubber coat and hat, the tropical uniform of pongee suits, Panama hat, tan shoes, long blue veil, and the dark blue uniform of the Town and Country Nursing Service. After these will come the Public Health nurses, who are on duty in the zones surrounding the cantonments. Then there will be the nurses on special service who will wear a chevron on their sleeves. They will be followed by the Home defense Nurses, available for special duties in their home localities. They wear a special Red Cross badge and white hat but not the regulation Red Cross uniform. Closing up the nurses' line will be the dieticians including the First Aid students, and the War Deparment of Red Cross Instruction.

The second section of the pageant will be the Chapter Members, with the women leading. This section will close with a "human Red Cross" in marching line consisting of women forming the Red Cross flag. Those in red headdress will form the cross, with others in white Red Cross uniforms making the field.

Mothers who have sons at the front or in the army will make up the third section. These women will carry the service flags from the homes whence the American army has been drawn.

The fourth will be the Military Contingent, including the regulars, men in training, and the Home Defense bodies. The fifth will be a group of sympathetic and affiliated local bodies, such as the junior organizations, including the Boy and Girl Scouts, and school children, and such civic bodies as city officials, boards of trade and commercial and industrial groups.

All the plans for the parade have been completed, and directions issued to Red Cross chapters. It is the intention of the Red Cross to make it the biggest project of the kind ever attempted, mustering as many men, women and children into line as possible in the different cities.

GARDEN SASS

I cannot join the army, for the army told me so,
And lots of men are heavier an' wiser,
But I'm ready for all comers with a garden rake an' hoe,
And I'm raisin' peas an' beans to beat the kaiser!
The navy doesn't want me messin' up a pretty deck,
They've chased me out of each recruitin' station,
But me an' Herbie Hoover's gonta win the war, by heck,
An' I've got the finest garden in the nation.

The British didn't succeed in destroying the entire mole at Zeebrugge at the first attempt, but almost any lady who has given strict attention to beauty can testify that that is no cause of worry. Mole eradication requires patience as well as fortitude.

The most embarassing situation in life is not that of the man who tells the weeping family farewell and says his carefully chosen words and then recovers. It is that of the man who was given a farewell dinner by his friends when he announced he was "off for the front" last fall, and is still about town in his civilian duds.

It's easy enough to see how Kaiser Bill could go out and cry before the movie men and staff correspondents, saying, "What have I not done to prevent this slaughter!" Anybody who could frame up a war like this could do that. But what we can't understand is this: How could he go home and face Mrs. Kaiser that evening?

THRIFT

Thrift is not miserliness; it is not stinginess; it is not being a tightwad. It is having the moral courage not to have what we are not able to have, and the strength to deny ourselves in order that we may save. In short, the needs of the Nation for the purposes of War cannot be met unless we save, and save by going without things that are not absolutely essential to the efficiency and health of the individual.

Burning" to a most pleased audience.

On account of the lateness of the hour the departmental conferences were postponed until 2:45 Sunday afternoon and the Epworthians adjourned to the High School athletic field and bleachers for the hour of sports.

Nine young men representing different chapters of the Pasadena District engaged the nine of the local high school in a game of baseball, losing to the local champions by a score of 8 to 5. The Epworthians had never before played together so their playing proved to be a remarkable exhibition of ability. The line-up was as follows:

Epworthians

Paden of Puente, p.
Barton of El Monte, c.
Lusby of Glendale, 1b.
Malone of Glendale, 2b.
De Gomo of El Monte, 3 b.
Wilkinson of El Monte, ss.
Rutherford of Colton, lf.
Butterfield of Pasadena, cf.
Harkness of Glendale, Gray of Pasadena and Gould of El Monte, rf.

High School

Freeman, c.
Lee, p.
Padelford, 1b.
M. Powers, 2b.
McGillis, 3b.
M. Z. Brown, ss.
F. Powers, lf.
Fanset, cf.
M. Brown, rf.

The feature of the game was a home run off the Glendale pitcher in the last inning with one on base. Hits were plentiful and long drives featured nearly every inning.

At the conclusion of the game the citizens of Glendale and the delegates with machines rallied at the high school grounds and conveyed the entire delegation to Griffith Park, where a delightful picnic and supper were enjoyed. Time was too limited for more than an informal get-together and no program of sports was carried out, the delegates being conveyed back to the church in time for the evening session, which commenced at 7:15.

"Fifteen Shots in Thirty Minutes," two-minute talks on different phases of League work by representative Epworthians from all over the district, proved conclusively that the Leaguers of this district are a live bunch and acquainted with Epworth League methods and ideals.

A quartet of former U. S. C. students, now residents of South Pasadena, furnished special music and an unusual presentation of the coming Institute at Huntington Beach in July was made by Horace Whiteman, Jr., of Alhambra, prior to the wonderfully inspirational address of the evening by Prof. Tully C. Knowles of the University of Southern California in behalf of Christian Education.

It is interesting to know that the registration at this League convention was 1067, or three hundred more than last year. It was a record registration for the District.

The convention voted to meet in May next year at San Bernardino.

The nominating committee submitted its report and the following officers were elected:

President, William Holtz of Lake avenue M. E. Church, Pasadena.

First Vice-Prest., Miss Nora Willis of El Monte.

Second Vice-Prest., Miss Marion Whitman of Alhambra.

Third Vice-Prest., Miss Helen Hartley of Upland.

Fourth Vice-Prest., E. Hilmer Carlson of San Bernardino.

Secretary, Carl V. Cooper of South Pasadena.

Treasurer, Will J. Moore of Lincoln avenue M. E. Church, Pasadena.

Junior League Supt., Miss Marion Curtis of Lamanda Park.

These were installed by the District Superintendent, Dr. A. Ray Moore, who received the first recognition of his new title, a telegram having been received and read from the Ohio Wesleyan University announcing that it had bestowed upon Mr. Moore the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

The convention sermon was delivered, as is customary, Sunday morning by the resident pastor, Rev. B. Dudley Snudden.

In the afternoon Rev. Leo F. Kline of Eagle Rock made an address on "The Hand to Hand Conflict," in which he made the point that the Epworth Leaguer must not only be equipped to wage war upon sin but must use his equipment.

Of the musical numbers the duet by Miss Margaret Lusby and Miss Eva Thede of the Glendale choir was especially enjoyed.

The other address of the afternoon was made by Rev. A. Ray Moore of Pasadena on "Epworth League Camouflage," in which he asked and satisfactorialy answered the question, Is the Epworth League pretending to be something it is not?

At five o'clock delegates were entertained in the banquet room of the church by the Leagues of the Methodist churches of Glendale, West Glendale, Tropico, Casa Verdugo and Eagle Rock.

Miss Ethel Murphy of the Casa Verdugo League had charge of the evening service at 6:15 and at her request a large number of representatives of the Leagues in attendance announced the chapters they came from, told what the convention had meant to them and what they were taking back from it of spiritual uplift. Every chapter in the district was represented except Las Vegas, Nevada.

A feature of the Sunday evening service was the anthem, beautifully rendered by the choir of the Glendale Methodist Church.

Rev. Walter C. Buckner, who gave the closing address, had just made the closing address at an afternoon session of the Los Angeles District League and compared the two districts in a manner quite complimentary to the organization represented, saying the convention exceeded in numbers and enthusiasm that of the Los Angeles District, at which 18 young persons came forward to dedicate themselves to religious work. He hoped Glendale would see a like consecration. His hopes were more than realized for at the close of the evening session in response to the invitation of Dr. Moore, forty young people came to the altar and dedicated themselves to ministerial, missionary, Y. M. C. A. and Deaconess work. Mr. Buckner's subject was "The High Cost of Lighting." He declared there is no light unless something burns, and we can not illuminate the world with Christianity without expending energy of some sort. If we do anything worth while it will cost us something.

The resolutions adopted included expressions of thanks to Glendale citizens and officials, the League chapter of Glendale Sub-district, the organizations within the Glendale M. E. Church, members of other denominations who opened their homes to delegates, to Dr. A. Ray Moore for his contributions to the success of the convention. Resolutions also endorsed the endowment campaign of U. S. C. and a change in phraseology of "Epworth Leaguers" to "Epworthians." The work of the cabinet of the past year was commended, especial mention being made of President J. Ross Jennings. The convention also pledged its support of the Epworth League Institute to be held at Huntington Park July 15, 1918.

Last but not least it pledged its support of the prosecution of the war to a successful Christian victory and specially referred to the 329 young men and women of the Pasadena District who are now serving with the colors. The final resolution was a vote of thanks to George Ward, janitor, for his untiring efforts in making the delegates comfortable and at home in the church.

Personals

Mrs. Leroy Blair of Gardena avenue has gone to San Pedro, where her husband is now employed, and may spend the summer there.

Merritt Ludden came from the Aviation Camp at Riverside, where he is engaged in Y. M. C. A. work to spend Sunday with Mrs. Ludden at their home on El Bonita avenue.

The Thursday Afternoon Club of the Tropico district will meet next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grace Webster on Blanche avenue. Mrs. Lillian Clarkson will be the speaker.

Mrs. David Francy, 308 South Kenwood, leaves this evening for the state of Washington, where she will visit for three months with her two sons, Harry and Mark, who are at Camp Lewis, and with her sister, who resides at Kent.

Mrs. C. W. Kimberly of 345 San Fernando road is so far improved that she is able to get out for automobile drives and to receive her friends at her home. She is still slightly lame from her accident, but is gaining all the time.

Roger H. Brown, who has been connected with the Home Telephone Company as Glendale manager, in company with Mr. Malarkey has gone up to Lone Pine in Inyo county on a fishing trip. He announced before going that he intended to enlist in the army but did not state what branch of the service he would enter. He was graduated as an engineer from Stanford and is well equipped to give valuable service at the front. Mrs. Brown is visiting her parents in Monrovia.

Los Angeles dry is having its effect throughout the county, and Chief Herald reports that very few arrests are made except for violation of traffic ordinances. Eleven arrests were made for this cause Saturday and Sunday evenings, many of them being fishermen speeding for home, and nearly all of them out of town men from Pasadena, Los Angeles, San Fernando, Monrovia, and other nearby towns who traversed the Colorado boulevard. All these cases will have a hearing May 15th at 2 p. m. before Judge Lowe.

A happy dinner party was entertained Sunday at the home of Sir Frances and Mrs. Booth, 429 Gardena avenue, South Glendale. The table was laid for nine: Mrs. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Frost and two daughters, Miss Ruth and Miss Mabel Frost, all of Los Angeles, and the host and hostess. Roses, roses, everywhere, inside and outside the little bungalow is completely covered with roses and is the delight of hundreds of passers by. Nothing like it anywhere in the Sunny South.

The residents of South Glendale, the late Tropico district, are wondering when the Pacific Electric Railroad is going to commence work on the East Glendale line which is to cut through Cypress avenue and up behind Adams street, what is being done with all the money that was subscribed by the various property owners en route, also why can not the lights be left burning after 2 a. m. instead of switching off and leaving the place in total darkness so that our police patrol can not see possible thieves and holdups and places him at a great disadvantage.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

Volunteers are wanted to work in the Red Cross War Fund Drive under various captains or for reserve work on call.

Persons who have had successful experience in soliciting are preferred but such experience is not essential. If you are willing to devote some of your time to this work for your country during the drive, from May 20th to May 27th, and attend preliminary meetings for instructions, send your name and address and telephone number by phone or letter to A. L. Lawshe, Campaign Manager, Red Cross Headquarters, Phone Sunset 1147.

PACIFIC AVE. P.-T. A.

In the open court of the Pacific avenue school over thirty cunning little girls and boys gave a winsome program, just full of eager anticipation, mirth and originality. It was in celebration of the monthly meeting held by the Pacific avenue P.-T. A. Thursday, May 9th.

Under the direction of Miss Ida Covey, assisted by Mrs. Heasley, Mrs. Moode and Miss May Circle, the half hour devoted to the children was spent in song, verse and a frolicsome dance around the beautiful Maypole.

Annual reports were afterwards read by the following members of the executive board: Mesdames Edna Sawyer, Frank Ayars, P. Lucas, J. S. Hearnshaw, P. Hanning, J. Beggs, H. Perkins, M. Heasley, Finch, Wilson, O. E. Van Oven, D. H. Johnson, A. S. Chase and Fannie Stone, principal of the school.

The reports revealed a most successful term, benevolently, socially and financially.

Election of officers for the coming year then took place, being as follows: Mrs. Edna Sawyer, president; Mrs. J. E. Moode, first vice-president; Mrs. A. S. Chase, second vice-president; Mrs. P. O. Lucas, third vice-president; Mrs. Waller, treasurer; Mrs. Tronsier, secretary, and Mrs. W. C. Alvord, historian.

The presiding president, Mrs. Minnette Sherman, retiring this term only to cast her seeds of kindness in other fields, gave a stirring plea for the future work of the association and expressed her gratitude for the help others had extended in making her official duty a glorious success.

MRS. D. H. JOHNSON.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

The Sixteenth Annual Convention of the Epworth Leagues of Pasadena District is over. But the results shall endure. The delegates unanimously declared it to be the greatest of all the Conventions. They were warm in their praises of the hospitality of the Glendale people who so generously entertained. Even though the registrations ran 300 more than at the largest of previous conventions, in spite of the fact that 350 men and women have left the Leagues for war work, there were a few homes which had prepared for delegates which received none owing to the fact that many found at the last moment that they could not come. The local committees in charge wish to express their appreciation to everyone who prepared to entertain delegates as well as those who did entertain delegates; they thank every citizen of Glendale who so generously donated machines and trucks to convey the delegates to Griffith Park Saturday evening to the picnic supper; they thank the News for its generosity in publicity; they thank the merchants who so generously aided financially; they thank everyone for helping to bring this good thing to Glendale, because without their help the convention could not have been the success it was, and the people from afar could never have learned to know and love our people as they do now.

BERNICE WOOD,
General Chairman.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY FARM BUREAU

Dr. Edward Brown, F. L. S., of London, England, world's greatest authority and lecturer on poultry matters, who is temporarily associated with the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, will speak before the poultrymen of Southern California and all others interested, Friday afternoon, May 24th, at 2 o'clock, Auditorium of the Exposition Building, Exposition Park. Since the outbreak of the war he has made two trips to France to study conditions there relating to food production and its necessity as an element to insure victory. As a result of this close, personal contact with actual war conditions, both on land and sea, surely no one is in a better position than Dr. Brown to place the hard cold facts before the American public and urge a national effort to increase poultry production. He has a wonderful experience to relate and truly he has an impressive way of relating these things that most of us have only read about. The Los Angeles County Farm Advisor not only urges the poultrymen and farmers but all persons who are at all interested in this subject to hear Dr. Brown.

People who have less than you are giving.

PATRIOTIC CONCERT

An event of great musical and patriotic interest is the concert to be given Monday, May 20th, at 8 p. m. in the Glendale High School auditorium. It has been arranged and will be presented by Miss Ina Whitaker, well-known local pianist and retiring secretary and founder on December 10th, 1915, of the Glendale Branch of the British Ambulance Society, for the benefit of which the concert is given.

The public is especially requested to bear in mind that this society, under its original name of British Red Cross, was started in Glendale when there was practically no Red Cross work being done here, and that the work has been carried on ever since faithfully and efficiently, though quietly. All moneys, all hospital supplies, garments, bandages, etc., are sent to the Red Cross headquarters in London and are used there and at the front for the relief of wounded soldiers of all the Allies.

This concert is of unusual excellence and every number on the program is good in a marked degree, the chief attraction of the evening being the Men's Glee Club of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Los Angeles. This club is composed of twelve or sixteen fine voices, one of them a star tenor of the Ellis Club, and under the splendid training and leadership of their conductor, Mr. Horatio Cogswell, they achieve a wonderful effect. Mr. Cogswell is well known in musical circles, a member of the faculty of the College of Music, U. S. C., director of numerous choirs and glee clubs, and himself an artist and singer of high repute and great popularity. Miss Ina Whitaker is a pipul of Thilo Becker, a graduate of the College of Music of U. S. C., and a fellow student and classmate of Mr. Cogswell.

Mrs. Catharine Shank, our own well-beloved singer, needs no introduction to Glendale audiences, her charming personality and finished art making an always irresistible appeal. She was the soloist at the last Ellis Club concert and has done much patriotic work with them recently, at Fort MacArthur and elsewhere. She will appear twice on the program, which includes amongst other items a clever "Scotch Sketch" in which Tom Hamilton, piper and imitator of Harry Lauder, appears with Isabel Martin, bonny Scotch lassie, and dainty little Devina Woods of Tropico, whose costume dancing and acting have made her quite famous in Los Angeles and Pasadena. Miss Melicent Virden, well-known pianist, will appear on the program.

Full details of the program will be given later and a list of the numerous well-known people of Los Angeles and Glendale who are lending their patronage and support to this affair, which promises a delightful treat to music lovers quite apart from its humanitarian aims. Tickets are on sale at the Glendale Phonograph Co. and the Glendale Music Store; also at other places which will be published later. Vincent Salmacia, of the Glendale Phonograph and Piano Co., is business manager for this concert, and Herman Nelson, Cashier of the Bank of Glendale, is treasurer.

TO PATRIOTS

Many articles of value were loaned to the members of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club to make the costumes correct for the Old Cranford Musicale, which was given for the Red Cross to help our dear Sammies in France. On ordinary occasions the owners of these articles would not part with them, but being patriotic each one is eager to help in this important work.

One of the principal characters accidentally dropped a black silk shawl frniged and embroidered near the High School Thursday night. This article was loaned by a very old lady, who loves the shawl because of its historic association. We know the ones who found it are patriotic or they would not have attended the Red Cross benefit, and will be very happy to return it to the owner. Notify either of the following: Mrs. Freeman Kelley, 177-M; Mrs. Frank Arnold, 178-W; Mrs. Harry Greenwalt, 1225-W.

YESTERDAY AT THE GLENDALE BAPTIST CHURCH

At the Baptist church yesterday morning the pastor, Rev. Vernon C. Cowsert, delivered a discourse which was the "opening gun" of the Every Member Canvass, which the members of that church have undertaken. The following are a few "high lights" of the morning discourse:

The object of this canvass is not to raise money, but the purpose is to take the love, sympathy and helpfulness of the church to every member of the church, and, at the same time, to carry the love, sympathy and helpfulness of every member of the church to the church.

There is no excuse for any member of God's church being barren of spiritual fruits. The example of the barren fig tree stands for the inevitable result of the barren member of the church. If the church of Christ is to grow as it should, every member must be fruitful. No human plans can solve the secret of productiveness in the church. Christ says, "Ask and ye shall receive." It must be done by God's spirit. Only to the extent that we recognize that God is the Father of us all will we secure the object after which we are working.

We do not look to man for the support of this church. Any minister who looks to men for financial support deserves no support, but the man who looks to God for support will not be disappointed.

God says, "Ask and ye shall receive." This does not mean necessarily that you will receive what you ask for. Very often we ask for things that are contrary to what we really ought to have—it may be something that would be very detrimental to us. No wise mother or father will give the child everything he asks for, such as money, companions, lack of education, because the parent knows that is just opposite to what the child should have. God generally has something better for us than we ourselves can conceive.

Prayer does amount to something, and the sooner we individually and as a church realize this fact, the better it will be for us. Prayer is the most effective way of getting the spiritual things we need. God wants us to look to him for assistance and strength rather than to men. If a child wants something it instinctively goes to its mother. That is just the way we should act toward God.

In answering our prayers God gives us "good things" as he has promised to do, but these may not always seem good and desirable in our eyes.

There are many direct results of prayer—four of these are Illumination into His word and Himself; Peace, which the world cannot take away; a spirit of submission; and the gift of the Holy Spirit—the Comforter.

We should not forget that "the Father knows what ye have need of, even before ye ask him." He says, "Your God shall supply all your needs."

The service last evening at the Baptist church was under the direction of the Young Mothers' class of the Sunday School. The edifice was prettily decorated in white and red and the theme for the service was "Mothers' Day". The following program was rendered:

1—Rock of Ages.
2—Jesus Lover of My Soul.
3—There Is a Green Hill.
4—Scripture Reading, Mrs. Sanford.
5—Hymn.
6—Prayer.
7—Solo, Mrs. Nelson.
8—Worship in Giving.
9—Hymn.
10—Only One Mother, Helen Sprowls.
11—The Whistling Mother, Mrs. Reed.
12—When a Lieutenant asked prayer for his mother, Mrs. Maxwell.
13—Ladies Quartet.
14—His Mother's Songs, Mrs. Sanford.
15—The American Mother of Today, Mrs. Howard.
16—Chorus by Young Mothers' Class.
17—A Corean Mother, Mrs. Sanford.
Benediction.

STATE NEWS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 13.—Farm labor, war savings, women's war work, community organization for war and like topics were discussed here today at the opening meeting of the two-day Southern California War Council, called by Governor Stephens and the state council of defense. Prof. Guy C. Ford of the University of Minnesota, George B. Chandler of the national defense council and Dr. Frederick Vining Fisher, whose work has to do with community organization, were the leading speakers at today's session.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—A gold star shines in the service flag of the Newspapermen's Club of San Francisco today. It was consecrated at memorial services in the club's rooms yesterday, to the memory of Paul Harriott, San Francisco newspaperman, who was killed in an aviation accident. He was the first of the men representing the San Francisco newspaper men in the army, to make the supreme sacrifice.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., May 13.—Bakersfield's saloons were closed yesterday for the first time in the city's history. They closed as a result of an ordinance passed as a war measure by the city council, directing that saloons hereafter remain closed on Sundays. The council then decided to take no further action on the liquor question until the state votes on the Rominger bill. The Kern county farm bureau had requested the closing of all saloons during the harvest season.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—The Red Cross today appealed to school teachers of California, Arizona and Nevada to adopt the plan of Luther Burbank for instilling a desire to help the Red Cross among the school children of the west. Burbank's plan is to have four stories read to the school children throughout the three states during the week of the Red Cross drive—May 20 to 27. One of the stories is to be that of Jacques De Yonge, the French boy hero, while the others are to be selected.

PROTECTING COSTLY HIGHWAYS

"The protection of improved highways is becoming an urgent and vexatious problem," says the Southwest Builder & Contractor. "It has been the practice of road engineers to plan road improvements to meet the ordinary traffic requirements of each particular highway. Some roads are built for heavy traffic and others for light traffic. Paved roads have made heavier trucks and heavier loads possible. While the development of trucks has gone on apace, paved roads must remain as originally built for a long time.

"Millions of the public money is tied up in paved roads throughout the country. Most permanent road improvements are provided for by the issuance of bonds which run for one or more decades. Because of the greater and heavier traffic which has been the direct outgrowth of the improved highway, many roads are disintegrating rapidly and will be worn out long before the bonds issued have been retired.

"Recently there has been a very general awakening of the public to this fact, and the protection of the paved highways is becoming a more important and a more acute issue. In New York state it has caused the introduction of a bill in the legislature limiting the combined weight of a truck and load to ten tons. This bill has aroused a storm of protest from the owners and operators of motor trucks. That there should be a controversy over the question is not surprising or unexpected. Charles G. Bond, counsel for the Motor Truck Club of America, declares that if this bill is enacted into a law it will make worthless in the State of New York, $15,000,000 worth of motor trucks.

"It is manifest that there are two interests to be considered. The owners and operators of trucks have rights which are to be considered. So also have the people who built and are paying for the roads. If the roads wear out and become useless before the trucks are sent to the scrap pile, then the trucks will be rendered worthless because the heavy trucks are impossible unless the roads are of such a character as to permit their use.

"That some limit must be set sooner or later upon the weight of trucks and the loads they carry over the improved highways in every state, is certain. The problem is not one for New York state alone. If the improvement of good highways is to continue, the motor truck owners and operators and the public must find some definite basis of co-operation."
